OTHER REMARKS:
Goods repaired and returned - Value for Customs only—Not for Sale or Resale

Country of Manufacture or origin ensures customs officials understand where the commodity was made.

The value of the commodity should never be zero, or be the original sale or purchase price. There are two appropriate values that can be used. The first is the actual cost of the repair. The second is the manufacturer's replacement cost

A clear, complete and accurate description is essential to a proper clearance

Using the correct HTS code will ensure customs officials review the correct commodity

Informational statements regarding the reason for import and use of the commodity is an important flag for customs officials. Further ensuring the clearance is processed correctly
